

I Owe Who?

INTRODUCTION

In Crazy Like Us, we've been discussing generosity. But on the other side is how we receive generosity, tangible and intangible. This is so important because our attitude and posture reveals how we see people and God. Remember as you discuss "I Owe Who", this is about our hearts not just about the outward expression.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1) What part of Sunday's message stood out to you? Was there anything you disagreed with or that encouraged you?

2) "The recipient is always aware. The initiator is rarely aware."

- Have you ever experienced ingratitude? How did this make you feel?
- How have expressed ingratitude? What happened and when did you realize it?

3) "Gratitude and ingratitude are both relational drivers."

Read Luke 17:11-18 and work through the following....

- What is Luke telling us about who Jesus is and what He can do in this passage? (vs.12-13)
- Why were these lepers healed of their leprosy? (vs. 18)
- Why is Jesus' question, "Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine?", significant? What is he getting at that is not finished in the story of the "other nine"? (vs. 17-18)
- Discuss with your group what was the difference in the hearts of these group of men? What was the thing in the one leper's heart that made all the difference in this miraculous event? (vs. 15-18)

4) "When you fail to express your GRATITUDE, it actually expresses INGRATITUDE."

What, in my heart, is going to need to change or improve in order for the expression of gratitude to become a more significant part of who I am?

MOVING FORWARD

Remember, this is something that is not natural to us or sometimes seems impossible with life's circumstances. On our own, we will tend to be ungrateful. Ask God to help you have an awareness of all that He has done through the people and circumstances around you to help you move forward.
